Departments

1. Workshops and Retreats: Service Opportunity
2. Outreach Coordinator – Bridgette
  - a. Sun. Dec 21st. newcomer event in Port Hueneme. $150.00 budget approved. Event did not happen, she learned to advertise differently, asking fellows to help spread the word; instead of a separate newcomer event, we will be asking fellows to bring a newcomer to the new meeting in PH. We will choose a date that doesn't coincide with major holiday seasons. Approved funds were used for supplies that will be used for the next event in the Spring.
  - b. Tues. Jan. 6th: Launched a new meeting in Port Hueneme - see last page. Chair Christine attended, 6 attendees, expecting growth, particularly after the newcomer event; we are targeting college kids with a later (7:30 pm) meeting.

Departments con't

- c. Next Spring possibly: Camarillo Health Fair.
  - d. May: Santa Barbara Cottage Health Mental Health Fair. Budget request? Waiting for confirmation.
  - e. June: Ventura County Mental Wellness Festival at Ventura Harbor Village. Waiting for Confirmation.
3. Webmaster: Natalie G.:
  - a. “I just changed the primary address of CIIG’s website to www.oachannelislands.com ... we can start including it on all of our flyers... It will cost us $13/year starting next year on December 23rd to maintain this paid domain name. The original www.oaciig.wordpress.com address is still valid as well; it is just no longer the primary domain name.” QR code on its way!

- b. Drawing for Birthday raffle - Socorro, Yolanda need money for their registrations, Natalie G reaching out to them, including Nancy B; we voted unanimously to provide their registration (Natalie G) even if LAIG doesn't fund them.
- c. InterVoice: Mary-Anne. Natalie M. will check in with her about providing montly reports .
4. Region 2: Yolanda. Jan. R2 assembly. $100 fee. @yolanda-yturralde Venmo. Motion to pay for her registration is unanimous. We will ask her to give us a report from the Assembly.
